Vote for Your Jobs, Clerks of Los Angeles

The California Bureau of Labor (1909-10 report) inspected 244 retail establishments in Los Angeles employing 9,422 males and 4,260 females, a total of 13,672 persons, all of whom have votes excepting minors representing only 6.9 per cent. of the total, leaving practically 12,720 votes in the 244 retail stores inspected. Of course, we have in Los Angeles many more retail stores than the 244 referred to, and it is within the mark to put the retail stores vote of the city at 15,000 to 16,000. The inspection also covered 201 of our wholesale establishments, employing 3,781 males and 755 females, in all 4,536 persons, of whom only 5.3 per cent. were minors, leaving practically 4,300 votes in the wholesale establishments referred to. In addition the bureau covered 109 miscellaneous establishments, employing a total of 1,725 males and females, including but a bare fraction of minors. Besides all these there are the clerks and other help in our banks, real estate offices, hotels, law offices, doctor's offices, and the army engaged in the performance of the multitudinous "up-town" business of our city. These, doubtless, represent 7,000 more persons of voting age, male and female. In the coming election—the election which will secure and extend the present prosperity of Los Angeles—or, if the Socialist ticket wins, seriously cripple and retard that prosperity—voting responsibility rests upon no less than 28,000 office and store people, made up as follows:

Clerks in retail stores	15,000
Clerks in wholesale stores	4,300
Clerks in "miscellaneous"	1,700
Other clerks, at least	7,000
Total clerks	28,000

How will that army vote? is the question. They will be a big factor in the sunrise-to-sunset struggle of Tuesday, December 5. Will they vote for Socialist Harriman (the assailant of the capital upon which their employment rests), and his Socialist associates, or will they vote for Alexander and the work-preserving and wage-preserving good government ticket? In other words, will they vote for their jobs or will they vote against their jobs? As intelligent, far-seeing employees, will they vote for their jobs or will they vote against their jobs?

The stores and offices in which the 28,000 work, depend for their existence on having plenty of customers, particularly cash customers, and the clerks working therein depend for their living—their daily bread and butter—on the well-being of those stores and offices. Will those stores and offices be as busy then as they are now, and will they need nearly as many clerks as now, ninety days after December 5, should the capital-destroying Socialists ticket carry? The answer to that question is obvious, or, rather, the question, judging by all our experience of the past, answers itself—they will not. Such being the outcome, who would suffer first and most? Would it be the store proprietors? Would it be the bank stockholders?

Would it be the lawyers, doctors, dentists, real estate men, and so on? No, insistently no! The first and worst suffers would be the clerks and other help. That law of result is as immutable as the laws of the Medes and Persians. It never has failed and it never will fail. Decreased business means less help.

Don't be deluded, men and women clerks, by the Socialist's promises of continued work and higher wages, for they cannot deliver the goods. They have no control over Los Angeles store and office pay rolls or any other pay roll except that of the city, which, if elected, they will surely pad with their army of job seekers.

Remember that weekly pay envelopes will be fewer if the sun goes down Tuesday, December 5, with a majority of votes for the business-destroying Socialist ticket. Socialist success means fewer customers and fewer jobs.

—The Los Angeles Plain Dealer.

WENDELL PHILLIP'S CENTENARY

The one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Wendell Phillip's will be celebrated at Central Hall, cor. Central av. and Washington st., on Wednesday evening, November 29th. The celebration will be held under the auspices of the People's Lyceum. A splendid program will be rendered. Refreshments will be served. Everybody cordially invited to come and spend an evening with one of God's noblemen.

J. GOODMAN BRAYE, Jr.
The Tourmaline King

Announcement
Special to the Colored People

Having been employed by the Himalaya Mining Co. at their celebrated mines in California for the past ten (10) years, I have made Minerology a study. I have produced for the above Company the most wonderful gems ever known. In order to give my race the benefit of my knowledge and experience, I will save them 100 per cent. on all handsome pieces of jewelry they wish to purchase, small or large, for the holidays or hereafter. The above Company produces the most wonderful Tourmalines, Chrysoprase and Turquoise, and handles all kinds of precious and semi-precious stones. I can furnish the most beautiful stone from $1.00 up. All mail orders promptly filled accompanied with money orders. If articles are not satisfactory, money will be cheerfully refunded. I will give with each sale, one (1) piece of rough Tourmaline as it comes from the mine, as a specimen. These tourmalines can be had in all colors, shapes and sizes, and are brilliant as any diamond. The Chrysoprase we have in all shades of green, almost like the emerald in color, and the turquoise are simply beautiful blue, and the matrix exquisitely marked. No need of wearing an imitation stone. Call and see my display. All mail orders are solicited.

175 N. Spring St., rooms 21-23

We have personally inspected Braye's stock of gems and find them as stated and our people can safely patronize Mr. Braye. He has these gems in the rough as taken from the mines. Mr. Braye is a minerologist of 23 years experience and is employed by a big New York firm as an expert. He has secured a big block of real estate at Alamitos beach and has lots there at reasonable prices. One fourth down and balance to suit.

Linwood Acres is going to the front in great shape. Several cottages have been built; cement sidewalks have been laid and an abundant supply of artesian water secured. Mr. Mitchell, the manager is pushing things along in his usual vigorous way. The sale of lots shows no abatement.

THE PLACE TO GET FURNITURE

We want every friend of this journal who needs anything in furniture to call at Goodan-Jenkins Furniture Company, 733 So. Broadway and examine their stock before purchasing. Their stock is large and complete. Your credit is good there.

MEET ME AT T. M. A. HALL
 (Formerly Elk's Hall)

Annual Grand "Social" of Improved Benevolent Protective Order of Elks of the World. Wednesday eve., Nov. 29, 1911 at 231 So. Spring Street. Admission 50c.

Select program:—violin solo, Miss Bessie Williams; recitation, Miss Estelle Everette; soprano solo, Miss Charlotte Johnson, The Great Moonlight Dance, Miss Margaret Allen. Wheaton's orchestra until 1 p. m.

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Miss Rosetta Warner, assisted by her parents Mr. and Mrs. Warner was hostess on Friday evening, last, to a select company of friends in honor of her birthday. The affair being a dancing party given in the hall at Washington and Central.

Miss Warner was the recipient of many pretty and useful remembrances.

The reception by the several Masonic Lodges on Saturday, to the District Grand Master, G. W. Wilson of Marysville was a delightful affair and was attended by a large concourse of the Masonic fraternity.

The Peddler's parade at the Eighth and Towne avenue Church on Wednesday, drew a large number of people and the evening was a most enjoyable one. A neat sum was realized.

The Entertainment and Social to be given on Thanksgiving Night at Elk's Hall, under the Auspices of St. Philip's Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew will be one of the best all star entertainments yet given for the benefit of this church.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew of St. Philip's Episcopal Church have their cards out for their special service in honor of St. Andrew's Day and also the instituting of their Chapter to be on the evening of Sunday, December 3rd.

Mr. Frank J. Shelby, traveling field secretary of the Brotherhood from the executive council in Boston will be present on that evening and will address the members and their friends.

This meeting promises to be well attended and will be worth witnessing as the presentation of the Brotherhood "Button" will be one of the features of this beautiful service.

Mrs. Victoria Hanson arrived from Texas on Tuesday morning where she had been in attendance upon a sick brother who passed away shortly after her arrival there. After spending a couple of days here she left for Seattle to visit a sister.

The Faben Phi Fraternity composed of only members from the Brotherhood of St. Andrew held a meeting on Tuesday last at the home of Benj. Jones, 514 S. Av. 20.

Arrangements for the Charity Ball to be given on New Year's evening in Blanchard's Hall are rapidly shaping themselves and the Fraternity promises many surprises to the large number of guests who will be present on that evening.

The society event of the week which was a delightful and rare treat was the concert on Wednesday evening at the Eighth and Towne avenue Church by Mme. Pate Brown, assisted by local talent.

Mme. Brown's singing was a delight and all present were charmed by her grace and ease in the several solos she rendered.

The Elks will give a ball on the 29th at Elk's Hall and a large number of dancers will be present to while away the hours.

JUDGE DILLON AND MRS. FOLTZ SPEAK TO A BIG CROWD AT THE LYCEUM

The outpouring of the people at the Lyceum last Sunday surpassed all previous records; and demonstrated the wisdom of the founders of the organization. The janitor thoughtfully increased the seating capacity of the hall by the addition of fifty new chairs. These were all taken—the crowd lining the wall on either side.

It was a Good Government meeting held under the auspices of the Civil Rights League. Four o'clock the hour for the meeting, found the hall packed. In the absence of the president, Mr. J. Thomas Norris, the most popular presiding officer in the city, called the meeting to order, and after the disposal of preliminary matters JUDGE H. C. DILLON was introduced. He delivered an able, impassioned address, taking his audience back to the time when slavery was the common lot of the great mass of the human family; who were ridden to the earth by the few, the ruins of whose palaces are everywhere found in the old world. Step by step he led his audience from the unmarked tombs of the homeless slaves of yore, to the splendid dwellings of the people who are governing themselves, beneath the stars and stripes.

"The movement from the government by the few to a pure democracy has been going forward for centuries and will in time restore to the human family every inherent right."

In a masterly way he scattered the Socialist's arguments to the four winds of the earth.

Mrs. Foltz Speaks

Judge Dillon was followed by Mrs. Clara Shortridge Foltz a prominent attorney. Mrs. Foltz comes of a family of orators, her father having been a pulpit orator of note and was a delegate to the convention that nominated Lincoln for the presidency.

Hon. Samuel M. Shortridge, her brother is one of California's great lawyers.

While Mrs. Foltz's arguments against Socialism and some of its Utopian dreams were able, clear-cut and convincing such as a lawyer would make her frequent outbursts of eloquence were greeted by storms of applause. Her pleading to the President of the Lyceum who is a Socialist, to turn from the error of his way, was the one dramatic incident of the evening.

Her appeal was such that she made him appear as if he was on trial for a serious offense. In silent amazement the audience sat, every eye being riveted upon her victim who quailed beneath her fierce onslaught. By a sudden change of attitude she broke the spell, only to convulse the audience with laughter and applause which continued for many seconds.

It was a bad day for Socialism.

A trained nurse earns 15 to 25 dollars per week. That's why certain members of the Board of Supervisors drew the color line on Negro girls. That's too much money for Negroes.

A BIG MEETING AT THE A. M. E. CHURCH

About 500 men and women gathered at the A. M. E. Church Monday night. The object of the meeting was to give the women lessons in marking the ballot. After listening to addresses by Mayor Alexander and Mrs. Galpin, regular voting booths were set up and the women went through the process of marking the ballots. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. G. M. Warner president of the Woman's Progressive Club. She is a splendid presiding officer and deserves much credit for the success of the meeting.

MRS. W. M. COLEMAN

Mrs. W. M. Coleman of 1529 Ruth avenue gives lessons in needle work to those desiring them. If you are a lover of the fine art in this line it will pay you to visit her displays of needle work. Her gowns, exquisitely trimmed with lace and embroidery all of her own handiwork. Center pieces and table covers embroidered with flowers that vie with nature, will have to be seen to be appreciated. One of her center pieces was sold recently for $50.

WESLEY CHAPEL NOTES

Prof. Easton delivered an interesting lecture to the literary society Tuesday evening. The entire program was well received. Thanksgiving dinners will be served Wednesday and Thursday. Madams Daughterty and A. M. Grown will be in charge Wednesday and Madams Stewart and Markham, Thursday.

CAMPAIGN COLLAPSING

The tactics adopted by the Socialists is creating such an impression among the colored voters, that unless a change is made on the part of the Good Government managers, many colored votes will be lost. Already the Good Government campaign among the Negroes shows signs of collapsing. With a Negro on the Socialist ticket and dozens of workers in autos and other vehicles working for that ticket, it is a matter of doubt as to which party will get the bulk of that vote.

Something ought to be done and done at once. We fear gentlemen, that you are underestimating the intelligence of the Negroes.

A MASS MEETING

A big mass meeting will be called in the early part of the coming week to protest against the manner in which the campaign is being conducted among the Negro voters. A colored man who has not been in the state long enough to vote has charge of the campaign as "secretary and director." This man and his assistants made an aggressive fight against all progressive measures before the primaries.

The men who have heretofore defended the Good Government cause and aided in bringing about its victories have been side tracked. There is no denying the bad effect this kind of campaigning is producing. This is no time for experimenting with untried men, and voteless leaders.

Of the 12,000 colored voters in this city not one tenth of them have been reached, except by the Socialists who are making a thorough canvass. Their campaign among the Negroes is in the hands of the ablest colored campaigner in the state. Three automobiles loaded with intelligent Negro men and women are making a house to house canvass among the colored voters. One or more of the automobiles used, are rented from Negroes. The Socialists are using Negro papers, Negro workers and the Negro's automobiles and other vehicles to carry on the work among them. This kind of campaigning is creating a favorable impression among the Negroes.

THE DOOR OF HOPE CLOSED ON COLORED GIRLS

At Tuesday's meeting the Board of Supervisors refused to admit colored girls to the nurse training school at the county hospital. This school is a public institution maintained by taxes levied upon all of the people regardless of race or color. There are now fully 25,000 colored voters in this county who are paying taxes upon $8,000,000 worth of property—a part of which taxes go to support that school. And yet, colored women voters and taxpayers, the door of this institution which you are taxed to maintain is slammed in your daughter's face simply because she is dark of skin.

Colored woman voter what are you going to do about it?

Remember that the entire Board of Supervisors is Republican, three of whom are Progressives; the other two, Nellis and McCabe are members of the old "much hated machine."

Mr. C. J. Nellis, one of the biggest men in the county was the only member of the board to stand up and make a plea for fair play. He urged his fellow members to take a manly stand and drop their dodging, side-stepping tactics, but to no avail. The matter was taken under advisement. You know what that means. The pretention of the side-steppers were that they wanted to keep the matter out of politics. If they wanted to keep it out of politics they would not have drawn the color line on our girls.

MR. ROSCOE H. DOW

We have known Mr. Dow, candidate for Mayor of Santa Monica, for a number of years and always found him to be square in all of his dealings. In his capacity as councilman of that city and as a private citizen the colored people have ever found him friendly to their interest. We trust that every colored man and woman in that city will vote for him. As mayor he will protect the rights of all without regard to race, color or condition.

COLORED WOMEN VOTERS

An ordinance prohibiting the manufacture and sale of vinuous liquors in this city will be printed on your ballot to be voted up or down. See to it, that your husbands, sons and daughters vote (yes) on that ordinance. Saloons are an unmitigated curse to everybody.

By drawing the color line the saaloons have made themselves obnoxious to the Negro voters. Every Negro voter must cast his vote to close these Negro hating hell-holes. Men and establishments that draw the color line have out-lived their usefulness.

Following the lead of the saloons, certain members of Board of Supervisors have drawn the color line on our girls by closing the doors of public institutions to them—the nurse training school, for instance. You must start now to voting color liners out of power.

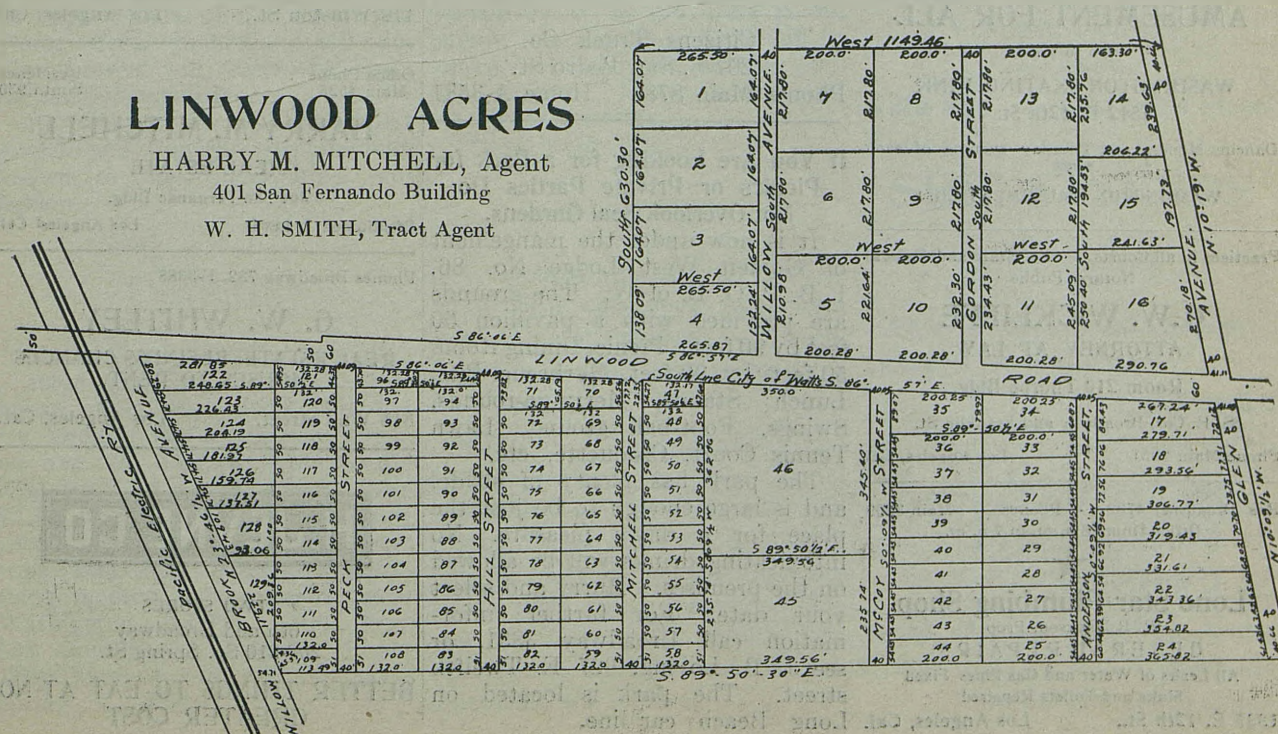

This Jim Crowism has gone far enough.
